Final Plans Are Set For Big Boy Scout Circus In Mayfield

Final plans have been made and the big Boy Scout Circus will go on as scheduled tomorrow afternoon in Mayfield. Hundreds of Boy Scouts and their leaders from all over West Kentucky and Tennessee will take part in this giant spectacle which is by far the largest youth group participating activity to take place in this area each year.

At 1:00 p.m. (CST) the Scouts will start forming their parade at the Mayfield High School. The parade will go around the square and through downtown Mayfield. The Mayfield High School Band and the Paducah Lincoln High School Band will be featured in the parade along with Scout floats, chariots, and the traditional clowns. Scout officials estimate that there will be at least fifty Scout units represented in the parade with over a thousand boys and leaders participating.

At 3:30 p.m. (CST) a rehearsal of the entire Circus Show will begin as all participants assemble in the grandstand at the War Memorial Stadium. Pedro the Boys' Life magazine's burro will be on hand to live up to the proceedings at both the rehearsal and the evening show.

The Cub Midway consisting of various simple fun games will be underway at 6:30 p.m. (CST). There will be approximately twenty games to play, with Cub Scouts serving as "barkers" and game directors. Among the games are: dart balloons, box hockey, wet sponge throw and bean bag toss.

The big Circus Show consisting of eight great acts put on entirely by Scouts, gets underway at 7:30 p.m. (CST) as Act I "The Grand Entry" starts the show. The Grand Entry will be a mass presentation of all show participants and an opening ceremony. Steve Combs of Mayfield is the Director of Act I. Act II, "Clowns, Animals, N' Things," under the direction of Kenneth Lynn of Paducah will be a laugh riot as the boys pull the colorful chariot. A Scout Trophy cup will be awarded to the winners. Act III, "The Grand Finale" under the direction of Nelson Tripp of Fulton, will portray the westward movement of the early pioneers in pageant style. Act IV, "Scout Games," under the direction of Ben Barr of Paducah will be a vast display of the various games Scouts play put on by the Scouts of the Chief Paducah District. Act V "Charity Race" under the direction of Walter Spillman of Mayfield will again see teams of boys racing toward the finish line pulling their colorful chariot. A Scout Trophy cup will be awarded to the winners. Act VI, "Scoutcraft" under the direction of Jim Willingham of Fulton will see the Scouts of The Cherokee District actually construct an authentic camping scene. Act VII "Pioneering" under the direction of Howard Townsend of Mayfield will show the skills of Scouts as they construct towers and bridges; and Act VIII "Grand Finale" under the direction of Bob Dustin of Paducah will depict a typical Scout campfire scene with Indian dancing and singing. A fitting closing to the entire show will be the haunting melody of taps played by a bugle.

Herb Colman of Paducah is the Circus Show Chairman and Jack Piers of Paducah will again serve as Ringmaster.

Phone Service Now Normal

By UNITED PRESS
Long distance telephone service returned rapidly to normal today in Kentucky cities as the four-day strike of telephone equipment installers was settled just before midnight.

A southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co. spokesman at Louisville said picket lines were discontinued in front of the main office here and at four other state cities shortly after 11 a.m. e.d. today.

Pickets were withdrawn Thursday at Paintsville and Bowling Green and early today at Henderson, Morganfield and Russellville.

The Southern Bell spokesman at Louisville said long distance operations started again today as operators at the Communications Workers of America strike officially ended, and added the operators were "flocking in" for today's early shift.

"I think there are only four or five out of an entire trick (shift) missing today. They keep coming in every few minutes. As far as we can tell, only a few scattered ones who haven't heard the strike is over are missing."

He predicted that normal operations would be resumed as soon as schedules can be set up.

Handling of long distance calls with supervisory personnel pinch-hitting for regular operators climbed 89 per cent of normal Thursday, the spokesman added.

Patronize The Concession Stand Urge Band Parents

The members of the Murray High School band and their parents have expressed the desire to thank all who have helped in any way in the support of the band.

Through this year, the Murray High School band will receive all the proceeds derived from the concession stands at the high school.

The band parents urge that all football fans patronize the concession stand as this is the only means of financial support the band has this year.

Decision Is Postponed

BENTON — A decision on returning 30 dependent wards of the state to Marshall County schools was postponed Thursday following a conference between state Welfare Commissioner Charles Allphin and Marshall County officials.

The boys, who are dependent, not delinquent children, stay at the state Boys Conservation Training Center, near Gilbertsville.

Two of them—Arvin Johnson, 17, Owensboro, and Eddie Hall Jr., 14, Frankfort, were ordered held to the Marshall County grand jury Thursday for the murder of Horace Kennedy, 71, Harrodsburg, supervisor of the forestry camp.

A third boy, Denver Callaway, 14, also of Owensboro, has been jailed here in connection with the Sept. 15 slaying.

The 30 remaining boys were withdrawn voluntarily from county schools by the state this week after he slaying.

Allphin said Thursday after meeting with Marshall County Attorney H. H. Lovett Jr. that action would be deferred on their return to school "until due consideration can be given to their cases."

Lovett told Allphin he is uncertain whether Marshall County has the legal right to enroll the boys in its public schools. He said the state attorney general's office may be asked for an opinion in the case.

School officials said earlier this week that several local parents had complained about the boy's school attendance following the slaying.

RED PAPER BOMBED

PARIS — A tear gas bomb was thrown into the offices of the Communist Party newspaper, L'Humanite Monday night. No one was injured and damage was slight.

A flood study of East Fork Clarks River in the Murray area has been completed, and the report on the study is to be presented to the city Friday night, September 20. The Common Council of Murray realized months ago that local flood problems must be recognized and considered if the best over-all plan for development of the community was to be effected.

Working through the office of the Planning and Zoning Division of Kentucky's Department of Economic Development, the city requested assistance of the Tennessee Valley Authority in preparing a comprehensive flood study along the river in the Murray area.

Kentucky state planner Walter Slouse obtained such assistance from TVA. Field investigations in connection with the study were completed some time ago and the office studies and the preparation of the report were completed this summer. The report will be available on September 20.

The objective of the study is to provide data that will be useful to the Murray Planning Commission in working out the best use of the land that is subject to flooding and in guiding development of the lower area bordering East Fork Clarks River. Copies of the report will be made available to each member of the planning commission for this purpose. In addition, copies will be given members of the Common Council and other city officials, as well as newspapers, the library, industries, and others having a real need for the data.

The City of Murray is situated on the west side of the East Fork Clarks River approximately 46 miles above the mouth of the river. The greater part of the city is on high ground, but the eastern corporate limits follow and extend a short distance out into the flood plain along a frontage of about 1 1/4 miles. The commercial and industrial development in and east of this flood plain strip is subject to damage from high floods on the river. The major part of the flood plain in the Murray vicinity is now crop land, cultivated each year.

Annual Soil Essay Contest Conducted

"Conserving our Soil and Water Resources" is the subject of the fourteenth annual essay contest sponsored by the Courier-Journal, Louisville Times, WHAS and WHAS-TV in cooperation with Kentucky Soil Conservation Districts and State Department of Education, according to Yandall Wrathe of the local soil conservation service.

Any boy or girl enrolled in a grade or high school may enter the contest. This is probably one of the most challenging subjects facing this country today.

Wrathe said in the United States we now have three acres of cropland per person. By 1975 we are told we will have 2.2 acres per person and in the year 2000, about 1.6 acres of cropland per person. This study is based on population figures.

In the United States we are taking out of agricultural use, land at the rate of about one million acres per year. So if this continues we would have less than 1.6 per person in the year 2000—approximately 42 years hence.

According to a recent study made on water in a well 165 feet deep in the state of Nebraska, the water now in the well fell on the land fifty years ago, Wrathe concluded.

Cyanide Emergency Now Under Control

THAMESVILLE, Ont. — Workers mopped up in rainy weather today at the scene of a truck-train collision that spread 15 tons of dangerous cyanide over a quarter-mile area.

The second load of a chemical to neutralize the cyanide—arrived overnight. The first 100,000-pound truck load was rushed from Detroit Thursday.

"Everything is under control now and we're not aware of any emergency at the present time," Ontario Provincial Police said.

The accident before midnight Wednesday left residents in fear of their lives as reports circulated the cyanide would blanket the area with deadly fumes if exposed to rain or dew.

But chemists said there was little chance the fumes could be given off in sufficient volume to pose a threat to the community through water alone.

Drilling operations were shut down for three weeks because of a large cavity which was hit by the drill. They are now drilling with water instead of the drilling mud, which slows down the operation.

Miller Writes Of Progress In The Stubblefield Work

This letter is being published by request and to let the people of this area know of things in store for them perhaps.

Hattie L. Miller, McConnell Dear Mrs. McConnell:

Thank you very much for sending me the most recent clipping from the Ledger & Times. Although it is too early to send you any more positive news on our crusade to make the world aware of Mr. Stubblefield's work, I do have two new developments which may interest you.

I returned last week from a trip to New York City in connection with publicity interviews for the new fall series of "Millionaire" shows. While there, I had a long conversation with a nationally known syndicated feature writer named John Lest. He had read about my campaign on behalf of Mr. Stubblefield, and was very much pleased and intrigued, because it seems he has been one of the few writers who is aware of the Kentucky inventor's contribution to the field of electronics. He said he even wrote an article or so about him. As a result, the larger portion of his interview for me—wherever and whenever it will be published—will deal with my interest in N.B.S. As you know, every extra word the press can contribute to our cause will be just that much more helpful in attaining our goal.

The second development is a most interesting one, because it springs from my campaign itself. As you know, as a result of my recent visit to your fair city, Gov. Chandler bestowed upon me the high honor of a Kentucky Colonel. It so happens that the national secretary of the organization, Colonel Anna Goldman, now resides in Los Angeles, just a few blocks from my home in Brentwood. When she received the news of my appointment, she immediately phoned me and we had a delightful visit. When she heard the reason for my being named to this select company, she became very excited and said that in recent years outstanding Kentuckians have often been granted numerous appointments as Colonels. She is now setting the wheels in action with the heads of the organization to bestow such an award upon the late Nathan Stubblefield.

With this increase of interest in your city's forgotten genius, I do hope that all Murrayites will see fit to pay him the supreme compliment of naming the Science Building on the college campus after him. Ticks on letters of your radio station are a laudable sign of recognition, but I do think that a street, and certainly a portion of your fine educational institution, should commemorate his name. This would not only be a suitable honor to your illustrious former citizen, but a compliment to the good judgment of Dr. Blackburn and all the members of the Board of Regents. If such a decision is made, I would do my utmost to interest leaders of radio and TV in being present at such a dedication and would certainly attempt to attend myself, if at all possible.

Good luck to you and thank you for your many kindnesses in the past, and for keeping me in touch with local developments on behalf of the Stubblefield tradition.

Sincerely,
Marvin Miller

Davies Refuses To Step Down After Denying Faubus' Charge

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — The three lawyers representing Gov. Orval E. Faubus left U.S. district court while it was in session today and walked out of the building.

One of them, Tom Harper, had told Judge Ronald Davies, that he wanted no further part of the proceedings to put the governor under federal injunction not to prevent the integration of Central High School.

There was no immediate indication whether all three had quit the case.

Fulton School Attorney To Discuss Order

FULTON — Joe Warren, attorney for the Fulton School Board, said today he planned to meet with the board as soon as possible to discuss a Federal Court order for immediate integration of Fulton High School.

Warren met Thursday with Federal Judge Roy M. Shelbourne and attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Paducah to discuss the default judgement last week in U. S. District Court there.

Shelbourne said earlier that the word "immediate" in the judgment meant that the high school here should be desegregated this month.

Warren said today the school board had no definite plan to enter a motion asking that the judgment be modified but added, "That is a question that is open to us."

The attorney for the school board Thursday told Shelbourne that immediate integration of the high school would be "difficult" and Shelbourne replied that that was an administrative problem.

Shelbourne also set a second meeting for discussion of the judgment for Oct. 3.

Warren said no definite date was set for implementation of the court order at Thursday's meeting.

Joe Freeland, Paducah, attorney for the NAACP, said that Shelbourne explained the wording "next term" in the judgment meant the current term.

There had been some controversy as to whether the phraseology used meant this term or the semester which begins in February 1958. Shelbourne said he would sign a supplemental judgment clarifying the order if any misunderstanding existed.

The NAACP petition was filed last January in U. S. District Court at Paducah, alleging that 16 Negro pupils were denied admission to Fulton High School last fall.

The school board was ordered to file an integration plan with the court and the default judgment was filed when it failed to do so.

Murray High Tigers Tangle Undefeated Morganfield Here

The Murray High School Tigers have worked hard all week and hope to get a victory over Morganfield in their football game at Holland Stadium tonight.

King's passing and the receiving of Hutson, Pugh, Wells, and the other ends have improved tremendously since the opening game two weeks ago. The timing and blocking is much better and the coaches hope for a good performance.

Cross' kicking has been good in both games and his kicks get longer with each practice. Murray will go along with King, Cross, Brewer, Allison, Henry, McGinnis in the Backfield; Carraway at the tackles; Parker, McClure, and Farrell at guards; and Lee and Miller at centers.

Morganfield is undefeated to date and a good game is expected.

No mind can measure or comprehend the infinite care the Infinite Father showers upon all living creatures.

Milwaukee Braves And New York Yankees Set Out On "Operation Lockup" Tonight

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees and Milwaukee Braves put their best pitchers forward tonight when they set out on "operation lockup" against the Boston Red Sox and Chicago Cubs.

The Yankees, who can clinch Casey Stengel's eighth American League pennant in nine years by winning four of their last eight games even if the Chicago White Sox win all their 10, are sending Whitey Ford against the Red Sox while the Braves' "magic number" is six, have named Warren Spahn to start in quest of his 20th victory against the Cubs.

Barring an unforeseen turnabout, these are the same pitchers who will be on the mound on Wednesday, Oct. 2, when the World Series opens at Yankee Stadium.

Face Brewer, Rush
Ford, 10-4, will be opposed by right-hander Tom Brewer, who has a 16-12 record for the season but has beaten the Yankees only twice in his career. Spahn, 19-10, is expected to draw Bob Rush, 6-15, as his opponent.

The White Sox, who nurtured faint hopes with Thursday's 7-3, 13-inning triumph over the Washington Senators, start a three-game series at Cleveland with Dick Donovan, 16-5, facing Don Moss, 10-9.

The Cardinals, whose No. 1 objective is to stay close until their three-game series in Milwaukee, Sept. 23-24-25, have Vinegar Bend Mizell, 10-8, going against Cincinnati's Don Gross, 6-9.

Otherwise, the chief interest as the races near their end, centers on the race for the NL batting title between Stan Musial and Willie Mays. Stan leads, 343 to 338, but the New York Giant star has the advantage of not having to worry about a pennant race.

Williams Conceded Crown
The once-spectacular AL batting race is now being conceded to 39-year-old Ted Williams who has opened a 12-point lead over Mickey Mantle, 377 to 365.

The White Sox kept plugging away in Thursday's only major league activity, scoring four runs in the 13th inning to cut the Yankee lead to six games. Nelson Fox, the tough little second baseman, broke a 3-3 tie with his fourth hit, a two-run homer, and a homer by Minnie-Minoso, Jim Landis' double and Ted Beane's single.

Bob Keegan, who pitched a no-hitter against the Senators on Aug. 20, got credit for his 10th win in relief while Pedro Ramos was the loser.

not affect the hearing. He is under no compulsion to appear, as long as he is represented. His lawyers served that purpose and prevented the Justice Department from getting the injunction by default.

If an injunction is "handed down and Faubus fails to obey it, he could become the first governor to be arrested and fined or sent to jail for contempt of court.

Before the government starts presenting witnesses, Judge Davies will rule on a request by Faubus to let himself be replaced by another judge on the ground of personal bias.

The government filed a motion just before court opened today, accusing Faubus of trying to stall off the hearing.

Assistant U.S. Attorney James W. Galtman filed the motion less than an hour before the hearing opened. It asked U.S. District Judge Ronald N. Davies to strike an affidavit of prejudice that Faubus filed Thursday.

"In view of the absence of the showing of any adequate reason for such delay, the affidavit filed by Faubus must be regarded as solely directed to accomplish delay and cause embarrassment to the administration of justice," the government motion said.

Report...

Clarks River occur frequently at Murray. Hardly a year passes that the stream does not overflow its banks one or more times, usually in the winter or early spring months. Large floods, however, occur only at relatively long intervals. The highest known flood in the past 90 or more years occurred on March 22, 1952. Floods reaching within one or two feet of the crest level of the 1952 flood were experienced in March 1937, and January 1931. The Murray flood study is one of a number that TVA is conducting to aid communities in the Tennessee Valley. Much of the report is based on work that TVA has been carrying on since its beginning in connection with its water resources operations throughout the Tennessee Valley.

TVA has assembled information on rainfall, runoff, and other technical data bearing on the occurrence and magnitude of floods in localities throughout the region. These data provide the basis for preparation of reports concerning flood problems on many streams which are being made available to states, communities, and groups interested in their local flood problems. Catastrophic floods in the Northeast in 1955, rains and floods in Eastern Kentucky, and the more recent ones in Texas, are still topics of discussion. It would seem this is a good time for a review of flood problems in Murray as well as other cities. Walter L. Shouse, Chief of the Planning and Zoning Division of Kentucky's Department of Economic Development, and James E. Goodard and Edward J. Rutter of the Tennessee Valley Authority will be present at the 7:00 p.m. meeting at the City Hall to present the flood report and discuss it. Members of the Common Council as well as the Planning Commission and other city officials are expected to be present.

REFUGEES USE CASTLE

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — Sixty-seven Polish refugees who "jumped ship" when the Polish liner Batory docked here two weeks ago settled down today in a castle in the suburbs. Mrs. Dagny Plam put her castle at the refugees' disposal while they await permission to emigrate.
